

Astellas Pharma Canada was the recipient of the Business Employer of Excellence Award from the Markham Board of Trade

The Business Employer of Excellence Award is presented to a company that invests in their employees, and provides a culture that nurtures, recognizes and rewards excellence. Astellas Canada received the award, a first for the organization, at the 29th Annual Markham Board of Trade Business Excellence Awards on November 28, 2019. In addition to the Business Employer of Excellence Award from the Markham Board of Trade, Astellas Pharma Canada received six awards from the Great Place to Work® Institute in 2019, being named to the list of Best Workplaces in Canada and the list of Best Workplaces for Women for the fourth consecutive year, as well as being named for the first time to the lists of Best Workplaces for Inclusion, for Giving Back, for Mental Wellness, and for Healthcare.

Astellas celebrated the 10th anniversary of Changing Tomorrow Day

The company's annual global day of service. Nearly 80 Astellas employees rolled up their sleeves to spend a day volunteering at Variety Village in Scarborough, Ontario. Astellas employees' volunteer activities at Variety Village included gardening and property/facility maintenance activities such as cleaning and painting. Additionally, employees had the opportunity to participate in Variety Village's adaptive sports programs to learn more about how the organization is creating an inclusive playing field for people of all abilities.

